

Mouka Data Protection and Privacy Policy

Overall, this policy emphasizes the company's commitment to protecting the privacy rights of individuals and outlines procedures for responsible handling of personal data in compliance with relevant laws and regulations.

The policy addresses Personal Data Protection Principles (data protection laws in Nigeria, consent from individuals, protection against unauthorized access, basis for processing personal data); Data Collection and Control (means of collecting data, focus on relevant information & data quality, data retention limits); Data Subject's Rights (right to access, rectify, erase or restrict processing of their data, portability of their data, consent withdrawal); Data Confidentiality and Security (security measures to protect data, authorization to access data); Changes to Data Privacy Policy (reviews and communication of same, personal updates); Data Protection Officer (appointment of a DPO, contact of DPO); and Breaches (procedure for handling breaches).